

Book Review

Our book review is going to be in four sections. Look at each part and the model write to help you write your own review on a book of your choice.

Part 1

Did I enjoy reading the book?

I have highlighted the starting sentence for you or you can create your own.

It is really important that you tell me WHY you enjoyed the book using examples from the story so you will need to use the word because.

Starting sentence	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
because	<input type="checkbox"/>
!	<input type="checkbox"/>

Don't write about your favourite part of the story – we will write that part in part 2, just tell me why you enjoyed the story.

This is my example

Did I enjoy reading the book?

This week, I read The Twits by Roald Dahl. I liked this book because it was very exciting and you never knew what was going to happen next. I thought The Twits was hilarious because I loved all the different tricks the Twits played on each other. I really enjoyed how the Muggle-Wump Monkeys got their revenge in the end and tricked the Twits to stand on their heads. Mr Twit thought he was so clever but actually he wasn't. It also served him right for being so mean to the monkeys. What clever monkeys!

Part 2

What part did I enjoy the most?

In this part choose your favourite event or moment in the book.

It is really important that you tell me WHY it's your favourite part of the book using examples from the story so you will need to use the word because.

You could try and add some speech from the characters to use in your favourite part of the story for example

Why it's your favourite	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>
speech with speech marks	<input type="checkbox"/>

Mrs Twit cackled "I've got eyes everywhere so you'd better be careful." This made me laugh because she can take her eye out. How disgusting!

This is my example

What part did I enjoy the most?

My favourite part of the story was when Mrs Twit put her glass eye into Mr Twit's beer. She told him he had to be careful because she was watching him like a wombat. When Mr Twit had finished his beer the awful glass eye made him jump. Mrs Twit cackled "I've got eyes everywhere so you'd better be careful." This made me laugh because she can take her eye out. How disgusting!

Part 3

Who was my favourite character?

Here is the list of things you need to include in part 3.

It is really important that you tell me WHY it's your favourite character from the book using examples from the story so you will need to use the word because.

- ✓ Why are they your favourite character?
- ✓ Noun phrases
- ✓ Comma sentence

Use my example below to spot all the different things that need to be included in part 3. Highlight them so you can see how they are used.

You could also include I think sentence as well to express your opinion about the character.

This is my example

Who was my favourite character from the Twits?

My favourite character is Mr Twit because he is a greedy, hairy and foul smelling man. He is so disgusting because he has lots of old, rotten food in his spiky, bristly beard; this makes me feel sick just thinking about it. Also Mr Twit is revolting because he never ever has a bath or washes his beard. What a dirty man Mr Twit is! I think I would not like to live next door to Mr Twit because I could not bear to watch him catch the poor birds ever week for his bird pie. He's so mean!

Part 4

Would I recommend this book?

How many stars or marks out of 10 would you give this book and why. What ages do you think this book would be suitable for?

Completed Book Review

The Twits by Roald Dahl

Did I enjoy reading the book?

This week, I read The Twits by Roald Dahl. I liked this book because it was very exciting and you never knew what was going to happen next. I thought The Twits was hilarious because I loved all the different tricks the Twits played on each other. I really enjoyed how the Muggle-Wump Monkeys got their revenge in the end and tricked the Twits to stand on their heads Mr Twit thought he was so clever but actually he wasn't. It also served him right for being so mean to the monkeys. What clever monkeys!

What part did I enjoy the most?

My favourite part of the story was when Mrs Twit put her glass eye into Mr Twit's beer. She told him he had to be careful because she was watching him like a wombat. When Mr Twit had finished his beer the awful glass eye made him jump. Mrs Twit cackled "I've got eyes everywhere so you'd better be careful." This made me laugh because she can take her eye out. How disgusting!

Who was my favourite character from the Twits?

My favourite character is Mr Twit because he is a greedy, hairy and foul smelling man. He is so disgusting because he has lots of old rotten food in his spiky, bristly beard makes me feel sick just thinking about it. Also Mr Twit is revolting because he never ever has a bath or washes his beard. What a dirty man Mr Twit is! I think I would not like to live next door to Mr Twit because I could not bear to watch him catch the poor birds ever week for his bird pie.

Would I recommend this book?

I would give this book five out of five stars as it made me laugh out loud lots and I loved all the description that Roald Dahl used. I would recommend this book for ages 7 upwards The book was very lively and pretty disgusting in places. If I had enough copies I would give it out to the whole of the town!