What does the Queen do?

What do
YOU think
I do?

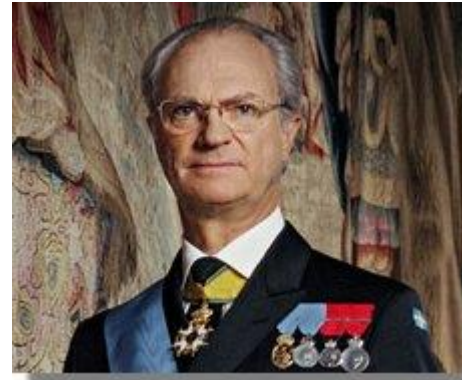

The Queen begins her day by scanning the daily newspapers to find out what is going on in the world.

Then she reads some of her letters. Usually she receives between 200 and 300 letters a day, so she chooses which ones she wants to read and asks her staff to reply for her.

Next she reads lots of important information from the Government.

The Queen has important visitors such as other Heads of State.

Sometimes she invites guests to dine with her and the Duke of Edinburgh.

Some days are spent visiting important places such as Hospitals and Town Halls.

Just imagine.....

What would you do if YOU were Queen or King for a day?

*How would you feel?
What would you do?
Where would you go?
Where would you live?
What would you be in charge of?
What new rules would you make?*
